1: YIP ORIENTATION PROGRAMME: LET'S TALK ABOUT THE FUTURE ON 26-06-2023

On 26th June 2023, an orientation programme for the Young Innovators (YIP) was conducted at MES College Marampally at Silver Jubilee Hall. The program was organized by YIP cell in association with APJ Abdul Kalam Chair for Research, Innovation and Technology. The Young Innovators Program (YIP) in Kerala is an initiative aimed at nurturing, and promoting innovation and entrepreneurship among the young students.

The session started with a prayer song. Welcome address was given by YIP cell student coordinator Anandhu. The session was mainly concentrated on promoting the innovative ideas of the students. The speaker of the day was the district coordinator of the YIP cell, Ms. Ancy Alex, along with her there were two interns of the YIP cell, who came to help us with the registration process. The speaker shared her experience working with the YIP cell. She also encouraged the students to submit their ideas and told us about the objectives and motives of YIP. All the students were made to register at the YIP 5.0 student registration portal and submit their own ideas. Along with that a main coordinator for the cell and department coordinators were selected. The program, was designed to identify, support, and mentor talented students, who have innovative ideas and provide them with, the necessary guidance, resources, and opportunities to turn their ideas into successful ventures.

Feedback of the session were given by the audience and the vote of thanks was given by Harshad. In short it was a very informative and valuable session for the students.
