Agenda No. 1: Department-level presentations for the next cycle of NAAC accreditation

As the third cycle of the accreditation period expires on 27 March 2024, the SSR is to be submitted by September. The department must take the following actions regarding presentations:

- Every department is required to prepare presentations covering the last five years, from 2018-19 to 2023-24, according to the seven criteria set by NAAC. The principal and IQAC coordinator have provided suggestions for these presentations and instructed the departments to revise them accordingly.
- HoDs are directed to update the departmental files. The files should be organized according to the criteria and IQAC will conduct the verification of the files in July.

Agenda No. 2: Add-on/Certificate Courses

• Departments are directed to conduct add-on, certificate and value-added programs, aiming to enroll the maximum number of students. The courses should be structured so that each student receives three certificates by the end of their three-year degree course.
